

BECKER BÜTTNER HELD

Programme

26th BBH Energy Conference Renewable Energies & Flexible Industrial Consumption – How can we create a win-win-situation? –

On Wednesday, 8 November 2017

Venue: Club de Warande, Zinnerstraat 1, 1000 Brussels

Block 1	The holistic view: The changing role of renewable energies for industries in Europe and beyond
9:15 – 9:30	Welcome and introduction Prof. Christian Held, Lawyer and Partner, BBH and Dr. Dörte Fouquet, Lawyer and Partner, BBH
9:30 – 10:15	The electricity sector was just the beginning: How fundamentally do all sectors have to change for the 2050 targets and what is in it for the industry? Dr. Felix Matthes, Research Coordinator for Energy & Climate policy, Öko-Institut
10:15 – 10:40	The Commission's Clean Energy Package & flexibility of industrial consumption: Do we need further incentives? Paula Abreu Marques, Head of Unit, 1. Renewables and CCS policy, European Commission
10:40 – 11:00	Coffee Break
11:00 – 11:30	The German PEP initiative: Bringing renewable energy solutions to African industries and communities Martin Baltes, Head of the PEP initiative, GIZ GmbH
11:30 – 12:00	The energy transformation as opportunity for European industries Claude Turmes, Member of the European Parliament
12:00 – 12:45	Discussion round with speakers
12:45	Lunch Break

BECKER BÜTTNER HELD

Block 2	The realities on the ground: The Horizon 2020 IndustRE project
14:00 – 14:30	New business models for activating industrial demand response Tomás Gómez San Roman, Professor, Institute for Research in Technology (IIT) of Universidad Pontificia Comillas
14:30 – 15:00	The overall value of industrial demand response for the power system Dr. Dimitrios Papadaskalopoulos, Research Associate, Electrical and Electronic Engineering, Imperial College, London
15:00 – 15:30	Real-life application of the business models in different sectors and countries: How can we easily assess the flexibility and what is it worth? Ana Virag, Senior researcher, VITO/EnergyVille
15:30 – 16:00	Discussion & coffee break
16:00 – 16:20	The legal framework for industrial flexibility and use of renewable energies Dr. Jan Ole Voss, Lawyer, BBH
16:20 - 17:45	Industry Roundtable „Challenges and opportunities for industrial use of RE in Europe“ <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Kristian Ruby, Secretary General, EURELECTRIC• Giorgia Concas, SolarPower Europe• Hans de Keulenaer, Director, European Copper Alliance and IndustRE project partner• Marcus Franken, Head of EU Representative Office, E.ON SE• Ana Virag and Tomás Gómez San Roman, IndustRE project partners Moderated by Dr. Dörte Fouquet and Michael Papapetrou, WIP and IndustRE project partner
17:45 – 22:45	Reception and celebratory dinner at Club de Warande